

Read p. 515 - 521. Answer the following questions based on your reading.

1. Roman culture was blended with what other culture? _____
2. With what kind of art were Roman artists especially skillful? _____
3. Describe how this kind of art is made:

4. This kind of sculpture has slightly raised figures standing against a flat background: _____ . How many figures are shown in the example on page 514?

5. This is the art of public speaking: _____ It was an important means of _____ for Roman politicians.
6. List 5 romance languages: _____ , _____ , _____ , _____ , _____
7. What does the word "romance" come from? _____
8. Although the Romans borrowed from Greek ideas of architecture, the Romans included the use of three other kinds of structures: _____ , _____ , and _____ . An example of one of these, a _____ , is on the U.S. Capitol building (photo on page 520).
9. The Romans developed the building material we know as _____ .
10. _____ are human-made structures that bring water to cities. One of the longest ones stretched for _____ miles. These used _____ (hint: #8) and _____ (hint: #9) for strength. What is the number of small arches in the illustration on p. 517? _____
11. Romans were famous for the quality of their _____ . Good roads were good for two things (_____ , _____) and bad for one thing (_____) .
12. The Roman Empire helped spread the religion of _____ .
13. The Roman Republic influenced the writers of the _____ .
14. In Rome, citizens had the right to _____ under the law. This inspired the creators of _____ in the U.S. and France.
15. Draw and label one of the contributions of the Romans: