

YOUR IMMIGRATION STORY!

Name _____

Talk to your family members to learn about your own family history related to immigration. Use these questions as a starting point to investigating your family's past.

1. When did your family first come to the United States (general time period is fine)?
2. Where was your family's country (or countries) of origin?
3. What were some of the reasons why your family members chose to relocate to the United States? (If you do not know the real reasons why your family came to the US, try to imagine or infer why they may have wanted to come.)
4. What interesting stories did you know or did you learn about your family's immigration or history in this country? (Write on the back)

YOUR IMMIGRATION STORY!

Name _____

Talk to your family members to learn about your own family history related to immigration. Use these questions as a starting point to investigating your family's past.

1. When did your family first come to the United States (general time period is fine)?
2. Where was your family's country (or countries) of origin?
3. What were some of the reasons why your family members chose to relocate to the United States? (If you do not know the real reasons why your family came to the US, try to imagine or infer why they may have wanted to come.)
4. What interesting stories did you know or did you learn about your family's immigration or history in this country? (Write on the back)